

A REALLY QUICK INTRODUCTION TO:

blokk

A social store, always open, all items in stock*

You're in the middle of baking a lovely cake. Eggs are off and You run out of sugar! Just open the blokk-app and type...

What are You looking for?

2 eggs & some sugar...

Everyone around You will be notified and can reply directly if they can assist. Thats it. You mobile is running out of battery, Your having a flat tire, You're out of water, You're feeling uneasy when walking at night, You're feeling even more uneasy and want to use the emergency button!

There are people all around in most situations, You just need a way to connect. blokk connects everyone

*give or take more or less
